FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Healey Werks Announces Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance 2008 invitation

(July 22, 2008, Lawton, IA) Serving the Vintage Auto Industry for more than 21 years, Restoration Specialist The Healey Werks announces their invitation to Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance 2008. The Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance is an annual event that showcases the world's finest antique and classic automobiles, displayed in a lavish outdoor setting. Held on the grounds of automotive royalty, the Meadow Brook Concours d'Elegance represents a total embodiment of the sophistication, grace, and opulent lifestyle that surrounds classic automobiles.

The 2008 Concours marks the 30th Annual Event, with a special tribute planned to the cars and people that have made it a success. The Healey Werks has been invited to display a significant Ferrari, a fantastically preserved 1968 Ferrari 330 GTC. Often referred to as the perfect Ferrari for the perfect gentleman, the 330 GTC has been revered as a truly timeless Ferrari, this being SN 10825. Legendary Ferrari World Champion Phil Hill called the 330 GTC "the best road going Ferrari ever built."

This example of Ferrari perfection and timeless preservation is currently undergoing The Healey Werks' prestigious Historical Preservation Service and Ferrari Classic Certification Service. These services cover nearly all facets of preservation including mechanical, cosmetic, and documentary. Owners Craig and Shari Hillinger plan to attend with SN 10825 August 3rd at the Meadow Brook Hall on the grounds of Oakland University in Rochester Michigan.
